WATER SYSTEM BOND ISSUE TO BE VOTED ON NEXT THURSDAY

Property Must Be Protected
From Fire; Insurance
Rates Lowered.

Do the property owners realize that in case there should be a real fire at which it was necessary to use all the available fire fighting equipment, the present water supply would last only 20 minutes, and then the firemen with their expensive and efficient apparatus would have to stand by and watch the property go up in smoke, all because of our inadequate water supply?

Do the property owners know that they are paying about 20% more for their insurance now with the poor water system than they would if there were a proper supply? Because of the lack of available water pressure and supply the Fountain Pen Factory has been denied insurance unless the factory supplemented the water supply with a private system.

The summer consumption rate is 60,000 gallons per 24 hours. This must be supplied by a 35,000 gallon tank. This means that the present pumps furnishing 115 gallons per minute must work almost continuously to supply the constant demand with very little reserve for emergencies; in fact, if one of the pumps goes bad the supply will not satisfy the domestic demand.

The Village Board plans to remedy this condition next Thursday, June 21, when they present a bond issue to the voters, the proceeds of which will be used to improve the water system. They intend not only to prepare for our present need but to have a supply adequate for the needs of a much bigger future Antioch.

The plans call for a new 100,000 gallon replacing the present 35,000 gallon one. There is to be a new 300 gallon per minute pump with adequate motor to supplement the present 90 gallon and 25 gallon rather inefficient pumps. It is anticipated that a new 14-inch well will be needed to furnish the water and the bond issue of $23,500 will take care of this well. However, if the Board finds that the present well will supply the new 300-gal. pump when placed in operation, the bonds necessary to sink the well, will be withheld from sale thus lowering the amount to be paid.

The Ordinance specifically states that the money derived from the bonds is to be used for improving the water system, so the voters can rest assured that these funds will not be diverted to some other use. If the voters do not approve this project next Thursday it is likely that future Boards will accept the verdict of the election, and refuse to present an improvement proposition until public sentiment is aroused by a disastrous fire.

The people who realize the urgent need of this public improvement must see that enough voters are brought in to carry this needed bond issue.

Bock, Sabin, Walance Complete New Fronts On Their Stores

In line with the general trend of business houses on Main street Herman Bock has improved his stores by adding new fronts and increasing the amount of glassed front display space. The entrance doors have been set deeper into the building and the copper trim adds much to the effect.

Bock and Sabin have their names neatly painted on their respective parts, and the exhibits displayed present a pleasing appearance.

S. M. Walance has put a great deal of thought on rendering the background effective for the display of his men's furnishings. This has been accomplished by the blending of tans and browns in Crafts assisted by well placed lighting arrangements.

June Brides

SMALL GRAIN, FRUIT, GARDEN, SLOW BUT SHOULD BE GOOD

Kutill Warns That Potatoes
Should Be Sprayed Each
Two Weeks.

Owing to the heavy winter-killing of both old and new alfalfa seedlings, it is expected that there will be a shortage of good alfalfa hay this fall and winter. Other hay fields are short and thin.

Those planting emerging crops may yet have sufficient hay for their livestock. More are sowing soy beans this year than ever before. A few are trying Sudan grass.

The small grain crop is progressing along nicely, especially on land that had been fertilized. The crop is somewhat delayed on account of the late spring, but with present weather conditions continuing there should be heavy yields of oats, barley and spring wheat. Winter wheat was winterkilled and had to be plowed up and corn planted in its place. Those who used Rock Phosphate or other phosphate fertilizers can already see the effect and are looking forward to big yields. On the other hand, however, many worn out fields show a very poor stand of small grains.

Corn has had its cool season which held it back considerably. Besides the cold weather, cut worms, grubs, and corn stalk worms are doing some damage and some of the fields will need replanting after the 20th of June. Prospects for ripe corn are not so good unless fall weather will be warm.

The early potato crop looks good, as does most garden truck.

Apples have set plentifully. In some instances thinning of fruit will have to be resorted to in order to insure large fruit. It is estimated that close to 25 per cent of all those having any fruit trees have done some spraying. This should improve the quality of local apples.

Cherries are a heavy crop this year. Many have also been sprayed. Strawberries are poor, but raspberries and currants promise a fair yield.

Warning
Spray potatoes with Bordeaux Mixture when they are about 10 inches high, and continue every two weeks to do so, to prevent blight. Many apkins or plant lice are present and through their damage the blight germ gains entrance into the vine tissues. Bordeaux Mixture can be bought ready mixed and applied with ordinary sprayers.

Methodists Beautify Exterior of Church

The contract was let last week to Clyde Wentworth, painter and exterior decorator of Antioch, for painting the exterior of the Methodist church. Work was started this week and will be finished inside of a week or so.

The new street grades necessitated the laying of new sidewalks on the church property. Plans are being arranged for the immediate construction of these.

The Public Service Co. will install gas in the church so that the ladies may equip their kitchen with a gas range in time for the next church supper.

ANNOUNCEMENT

There will be a seven Ball Boxing show at the Polly Prim Pavilion on Friday night, June 15, 1928, at 8:45 p. m. Standard Time and every Friday night thereafter instead of on Wednesday nights as heretofore. Admission $1.00 plus tax.

Errors Lose Game For Local Team To K. of C's

The Antioch baseball team lost a hard fought game to the K. of C. team of Waukegan, by the score of 18-4. Antioch's team played a good game for five innings and were leading 3-2. Eddie Drom, pitching his first game of the season for the home boys, only allowed one hit in the first five innings, but three hits and a walk and a couple errors gave the visitors four runs and brought Bill Steininger into the game. Bill wasn't "right" and with the aid of numerous errors the visitors rolled up a grand total of 18 runs.

The visiting pitcher, Bill Hendrix, gave our boys 15 hits and 3 walks but only 4 runs due to poor baserunning on the part of our boys and the snappy defense of the visitors. The K. of C. have probably the best balanced team in the league and are the favorites to win the pennant and the prize trip to Cincinnati. So the local boys deserve some credit for the good showing they put up in this early part of the game.

The hitters were led by Drom, and Steininger with three hits apiece while Nelson, Lasco and Sullivan got 2 each. Every one on the visiting team got at least one hit.

Lasco pulled off the fielding thrill of the game when he raced back and made a bare-handed catch of a hot drive which looked like a probable home run. G. Steininger, Rules and Kola also made several nice catches. There will be no game this Sunday.

GAS EXPLOSION CAUSES $7,000.00 IN HOTEL BLAZE

Following the explosion of a gas-line stove at four o'clock Friday afternoon caused a loss exceeding seven thousand dollars when the Silver Lake Park Hotel and Resort was destroyed. The explosion caused the building to burst into flames and the conflagration was beyond control when the Antioch firemen arrived. Nearby buildings were saved.

Sam Sorensen who owns the building had been insured but Mr. Christensen suffers the loss of all his personal property, furniture which probably amounts to $2,000.00.

Mr. Christensen moved out to manage the Silver Lake Park Resort from Chicago only one month ago. Mr. Sorensen plans to build it up again and thinks it will be ready for business in two or three weeks.

BUSINESS CLUB AND CHAIN OF LAKES TO OPEN OFFICE

Meeting at Antioch Cafe
Brings in Several New Members.

New signs of vigor were shown at the meeting of the Antioch Business club held at Dan Harris' Cafe last Monday night when application for membership were presented by eighteen men who wished to become affiliated with the organization.

The Executive Board presented a plan by which the Business club together with the Chain of Lakes association would establish an office in the business district and employ a stenographer to be on duty during the summer at least, and possibly during the entire year if conditions warranted. This stenographer would accumulate and file information which would benefit the members and others of this region. Such information would be available to the members for the asking. The stenographer, under the direction of the Secretaries, would handle all correspondence relative to the lake region. The office would be available to members for conference purposes, and the mailing lists would be for their use. The club voted to leave the final decision to the Executive Board.

The matter of concerted advertising by the resorts and pavilions in the Chicago papers was left to the advertising committee to work out.

As a leavening to the weighty matters of business the committee had Jack Paul a professional actor who presented humorous speeches and songs which kept the men in laughter for three-quarters of an hour. Mr. Paul is an interesting entertainer and is a resident of this community being associated with Mr. Krebel in the Woodcrest project.

Mr. Krebel was present and complimented the local business men on the type of stores and the completeness of stock which they have.

As a grand climax to the fine dinner, interesting entertainment, and general exchange of ideas, Mr. Swanson of the Antioch Theatre invited those present to be his guests at the second show of the sidesplitting "Speedy" featuring Harold Lloyd.

Local Farm Boys Enter State Contest

Four teams that will represent the Antioch Township High School in the State Livestock and Grain Judging Contest are on their way to Urbana where the contest is held under the supervision of University authorities.

The grain team is perhaps the strongest ever developed by the school and much may be expected from it. The team is composed of Harold Kennedy and Jasper McCormack. The poultry team, made up of Homer Edwards and Howard Mastine has done some good work in their practice trials, but they will have to work hard to do as well as former Antioch teams.

The dairy judges are Dorr Crenin, Gordon Martin, and Norman Barthel. Gordon is a veteran and high man of last year's Sectional contest.

The judges of Fat Stock are Ray McNeil, Lloyd Atwell, and William Nielsen. The first two mentioned are members of last year's 4th Prize State Team. It is expected that 120 schools will compete this year.

The boys are accompanied by Bert Edwards and their coach, C. L. Kutill.

Daughters of the Local G. A. R. Present Flag

Montre Fortness No. 8, Daughters of the G. A. R. appropriately celebrated Flag Day last Sunday by presenting a beautiful silk American flag to the Methodist Episcopal church.

Mrs. Margaret Felter made the presentation speech wherein she eulogized the flag, concluding her remarks with Brakes poem "American Flag". Rev. Kraft accepted the flag in behalf of the church.

The program included the singing of patriotic songs and also the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by the Fortness chorus, led by Mrs. Druella Fortness. Rev. Kraft also gave a Flag Day address.

High School Teachers Accept Positions For The Coming Year

The Board of Education of the Antioch Township High School announces that seven of the teachers have accepted reelection to their former positions.

C. L. Kutill will again direct the destinies of the Agriculture department. Miss Smith will instruct in the intricacies of Latin and History while Mrs. Richey will feed the hungry in addition to her work as instructor in the Home Economics department.

L. A. Stark wishes to shift from science to Mathematics for the coming year. He will also again direct the orchestra. Weekly practices will be held during the summer. There will also be a beginning orchestra if there are enough to warrant such. Mr. Stark has about 25 private pupils for the summer.

Miss Sigworth will prepare stenographers and bookkeepers. Miss Hec will be the head of the English department and continue with the dramatic and vocal instruction. Mr. Bright remains as Principal.

Mr. Watson the efficient coach for the past six years does not feel that he can return at the salary which the Board is able to pay. He has some good offers but has not decided which one to take.

LOCAL BOXER WINS BOUT BY KNOCKOUT

The Antioch Palace's First Boxing Show Proves Great Success.

THE DECISIONS

Frankie Hughes beat Joe Adams in 3 rounds.
Joe Delaney beat Mort Maxedon in 3 rounds.
Billy Blue beat Smitty Savage in 3 rounds.
Phil Taylor beat Tom Duncan in 3 rounds.
Jimmy Hull beat Ray Moore in 3 rounds.
George Holderman knocked out Rollo Hines in 2 rounds.
George Taylor beat Corney Johnson in 3 rounds.
Alex Kalzo beat Eddie Peddle in 3 rounds.

In one of the fastest fight cards ever presented in this county, George Holderman, local boxer, disposed of Rollo Hines of Chicago, in two rounds by the knockout route at Mack's Pavilion. George put up a good exhibition and the outcome was never in doubt.

Jimmy Hull, the other local representative from Lake Villa gained the decision over Ray Moore of Chicago. Jimmy had a much harder fight than in some of his former bouts but his clever dodging and ducking won the decision in the last round.

Little Billy Blue, the popular McHenry fighter was the favorite with the crowd and won from Smitty Savage. Each boy had won one previous bout from the other in former shows, so each was determined to win the rubber.

The Taylor boys from Waukegan disposed of their opponents in good form.

Frankie Hughes of Kenosha got the decision over Joe Adams of Chicago. This was the last number on the card and was a slugfest royal. Hughes is a hard hitter, and should be heard from in fast company. Delaney had little trouble with Maxedon who was a beginner from Waukegan. It took four rounds for Kalzo to get the decision over Peddle. The judges disagreed and the referee gave the decision to Kalzo.

"Jahber Young" was the third man in the ring and did good work, although some of the fans seemed to think he should be more energetic in breaking clinches. The judges for the evening were C. K. Anderson, President of the First National Bank of Antioch and Hugo Mitchell of Chicago and Bluff Lake, who has made a reputation as a professional boxer.

Mack is well equipped to handle these shows and fans are looking for-

Will Teach School, Wertz To Pawnee. Two Make 'Honors'

Other Students Have Arrived Home For Their Vacation.

Fourteen Lake county students were graduated from the University of Illinois on Wednesday of this week with the 2000 who received degrees. Mildred La Plant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sol La Plant of South Main street, was granted the A. B. degree.

Wesley Wertz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wertz of Lake Marie, was granted the B. S. degree from the coaching school. Wesley will be instructor and coach in the High School at Pawnee, Ill.

Margaret Jack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jack, formerly of the A. B. degree. Margaret will also enter the teaching profession.

Antioch congratulates these young people on their completion of the requirements for the Baccalaureate degree. They are to be especially congratulated because each has accepted the responsibility of financing their own way through school.

Ralph Thompson, son of Mrs. John Pacln, received his degree from Bradley Polytechnic Institute at Peoria this week. Ralph has been one of Bradley's star athletes especially in Football and Baseball. He is at present on the pitching staff of the Springfield Three Eyes. He will enter the coaching profession and probably continue to play professional baseball. The Antioch baseball fans will remember his services on the local mound a few years ago.

Word has just come to hand that Eric Noe, a graduate of the Antioch high school and now a sophomore at the University of Illinois, has been admitted to "honors." This means that his grades were in the upper 10% of all grades at the university. Eric will be remembered as the boy from Altonville who walked to Waukegan to take the scholarship examination. He received the scholarship from this county and is evidently making good use of it.

Cornelia Roberts was admitted to Eta Sigma Phi, the honorary Latin Sorority of the University of Illinois. Those who have been attending school and who are at home for vacation are as follows:

University of Illinois: Margaret Jack, Mildred LaPlant, Wesley Wertz, Gordon Ames, Albert Herman, Mary Herman, Cornelia Roberts, Glenna Roberts, Eric Noe, Philip Simpson, William Schwank, Ada Chinn, Robert Morley, Willard Chinn, Emmett Webb.

ward to some excellent bouts every Friday night this summer.

On the card this week, Hull and Moore will again fight, as will also Kalzo and Peddle. Holderman will take on Larry Williams of Chicago.

ULTRA-NEW, ULTRA-CHIC IS THE FLATTERING LITTLE FLOWER HAT

fashion's—a primrose toque here, a violet champagne there, others of big spreading poppy petals and one of the smartest flower types is that made of blue-silk-can-be-cornflowers.

The collection of representative flower hats shown here divides honors between the all-flower types and those of straw with flowers. The first hat with the off-the-face effect is one of the new linen straws. It is soft green with variegated green velvet petals. Of course it has a jolly vandyke veil. So many of the little hats do.

Pale pink apple blossoms are uniquely worked into the making of the handsome hand-sewn hair braided hat, shown at the top to the right. There is much enthusiasm being shown for novel straw and flat-flower combinations.

Another little veil accompanies the white violet toque at the left—which is not surprising for they are popular both here and abroad. The other violet toque is in the always beloved Purina shade. A side trim is formed of long pointed green velvet leaves.

An adorable model concludes the group. It is of transparent hair in old rose shade. The leaves and buds carry out a clever colorful design.

While hats of the sort which are shown here are answering the time-honored call there is every promise for a summer season of lovely feminine picturesque types featuring widened brims, charming old-fashioned straws, lux transparent effects and a profusion of flowers.

FASHION HINTS

Navy blue for all wear—No matter what the fashion in color, this good old standby remains in favor for the tailored suit, sport costume or long coat of fall, crisp decline or georgette.

A great deal of navy blue is used for afternoon frocks in georgette or silk crepe made as a rule with slightly bloused bodices and rather long waists and a skirt either falling in points or composed of fully pleated folds.

Several of the Parisian dressmakers are showing evening frocks of this shade in lace, chiffon, moure or tulle. Some are very plain with only a large draped point at the side.

Street ensembles are seen consisting of a long navy blue coat with moleskin collar and cuffs, with long cape effect over the sleeves, worn with a skirt of the same navy blue material and a tight basque-like bodice of lighter blue.

Impression of Fear

The origin of fear is often traceable to some incident in early life. Thus, a boy was full of courage and fond of fighting up to the age of ten when his mother saw him as he was returning home after a combat. Horrified at his appearance, she fainted. He feared to fight again, and belied he was, as other boys called him a coward.—Exchange

June 20.

Newton J. Van Alstine, 75, a resident of Bristol for the past 14 years, died Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the home of his son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Abe De Vuyat. The deceased had been in failing health for two years. He was widely known in the community and has a legion of friends to mourn his death. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Deles Van Alstine, pioneer settlers of Salem.

Mr. Van Alstine operated a farm for several years in northern Wisconsin, but for the last 14 years made his home in Bristol. He married Miss Alice Van Wie of Salem on Jan. 1, 1871. They celebrated their golden wedding anniversary seven years ago.

The deceased was a member of the Omro, Wis., lodge of Odd Fellows. He is survived by three sons and two daughters. Edward of Omro, Wis., Frank, Jeff and Mrs. Maude Horn of Oakbrook, and Mrs. Abe De Vuyat of Bristol. A daughter, Gladys Gibbons of Chicago, preceded him in death in March, 1922. Fifteen grandchildren and one great-grandchild also survive.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the Bristol M. E. church. Interment was made in the Salem Mound cemetery.

The news of his death was not told to his granddaughter, Dorothy De Vuyat, who attends the State University at Madison, until late Tuesday, owing to the fact of her closing examinations which were being held at that time and which would have unnerved her mental condition.

There will be a County Sunday School picnic at Paddock's Lake on Wednesday, June 20. Each family is requested to bring lunch. A series of games will start at 10 a. m. Lunch at noon. A program will be furnished in the afternoon consisting of two numbers from each school. The winner of the best musical number and reading will each be given a prize. All interested are urged to attend.

They advised them how to pack their trunk and what to put in it, by games that they played. The guests all wrote letters to the girls for them to read on their trip over the sea. Minister Seeks to Meet Holdup Artist in Ring

Kansas City, Mo.—Rev. John W. Keys of this city may be a peaceful, law-abiding citizen, but when occasion demands he also can use his fists to advantage.

This was revealed when Rev. Mr. Keys asked police to arrange a regular little bout so that he could enter the ring and meet the "gentleman" who beat him up on a certain night and robbed him of $100.

Keys said that he was a professional fighter before he entered the ministry and had an overwhelming desire to meet his assailant again. Keys offered the police $100 to arrange such a bout to give him "satisfaction."

Foiled Burglars Break 11,000 Packed Up Eggs

Berlin.—When the police were called the other day to a big poultry farm at Karlshorst, near Berlin, which had been broken into by burglars, they had to wade through a mass of 11,000 scrambled eggs. Worst of all they were valuable brood eggs, stamped and packed ready for export.

The burglars, evidently annoyed at only finding a few marks in a safe they had broken open, had taken revenge by smashing up the contents of the egg boxes.

Weights Pound at Birth, Life Saved by Spanking

Brooklyn, N. Y.—It is easy to believe that Miss Wuroshilla was indignant at the manner of her reception into this world. When this miss arrived there was very little life in her body. She uttered not the slightest sound, and since a baby's lungs must fall it it does not cry, the doctor spanked her until she cried. Miss Wuroshilla weighed one pound at birth, but is gaining rapidly. She is being kept in an incubator and fed with a medicine dropper.

Gets $1,000 for First Haircut at Age of 21

When Kmetz was a small boy he possessed what his family called beautiful hair. His brother offered him $1,000 if he would remain away from a barber shop until he was twenty-one. Joe did, and now he has $1,000 more in his bank account.

LEAP TO DEATH ON MOSCOW STAGE

Two Dancers Seek Solution of Love Tangle.

Moscow.—A Russian Kordova and Nadezhda Askaniya, beautiful ballet dancers, both aged twenty, gave a fragile touch the other night to the latest revolutionary ballet called "Red Poppy," when they plunged to death from the uppermost flies of the stage in full view of the public and just as the curtain was about to fall.

Both girls, their limbs tied, crashed in midstage just as the thunderous revolutionary hymn, "The Internationale," was struck up by the orchestra.

Fellow-dancers, who knew the girls intimately, expressed the belief that the women had formed a suicide compact growing out of an unusual romance. They said that the girls had fallen in love with a scenery painter named Kurliko, who lately has become renowned for his art.

Devoted to each other and yet both desperately in love with the painter. It was thought that the dancers preferred a common death as the best way out of the situation.

The ballet is packed full of revolutionary herole exploits, and to the spectators at a distance, who had not heard the agonized cry of the dancers drowned as it was in the thunderous music, the leap seemed like a novel stage feat effected by diabolism.

To the corps de ballet, however, who at that moment came from the wings advancing to midstage in a dance of revolutionary triumph, the tragedy was only too apparent in all its gruesome aspects. Before their eyes lay the two girl friends, the one dead and the other just brending.

The curtain fell immediately, bidding from the audience the panic and tears of the ballerinas.

The police authorities immediately began an investigation into the deaths. The theatrical manager advanced the theory that a suicide compact had been agreed upon by the girls growing out of circumstances not yet ascertained, but fellow-artists were convinced that the girls' mutual romance with the painter was the true reason.

The discovery was made by E. J. Neary and H. J. Annis, instructors in the high school. If the discovery leads to production, the land containing the ore will be quite valuable.

Refuse To Give Thumbers Rides

Minnesota's experiment in making it illegal to collect an automobile ride from the roadside is having a noticeable effect in reducing the number of accidents to pedestrians according to the Chicago Motor Club. Motor organizations are advising against the practice of "giving lifts" because of the possible danger that the one asking for a ride may be a hold up man, and also because the practice encourages vagrancy on the part of children.

Dies Minute Too Soon to Make Will Secure

Boston.—William J. Healy of Malden, who died recently while signing his will, might not have precipitated a lawsuit had he lived a minute longer.

He was signing the will, the latter showed a pen into his hand and supported him while the dying man traced the beginning of his name.

The "W" was completed and then a scrawling line—and at that point Healy could write no more. The attorney said quick, "Make a cross," and he held the hand while the cross was traced. Then Healy fell back—dead.

The cross constitutes a valid signature, the law says, but the will is to be contested because the witnesses did not sign the will until after Healy was dead.

The law provides that the will must be signed by the witnesses in the presence of the testator. Healy died a moment too soon.

Boy, Aged Nine, Accused of Robbing Six Stores

Baltimore, Md.—A nine-year-old boy was trapped by policemen here, accused of breaking into six stores and robbing the cash registers of three.

The juvenile court placed him in care of a children's aid society. The front windows of the stores had been smashed in with a milk bottle.

When they saw the shattered doors and windows of the six places the police concluded that the demolition had been done by an insane person or a drunken man. Patrolmen stationed themselves at advantageous points and maintained a watch for the miscreant. Soon they said, they were surprised to see a small boy, armed with a milk bottle, about to make an attempt to break into a Seventh street store.

The boy's name was withheld by police. He is the youngest person ever arrested in Baltimore on robbery charges.

England, the United States and Russia have exactly the same climate, says the Popular Science Monthly, but adds that this agreement is to be found only seven miles above the earth. Counteracting Gases

Dangerous gases that are likely to explode in tunnels, mine shafts and other confined places are being counteracted by spraying the interiors with mineral dust, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The treatment does not directly eliminate danger, but it applied in time it is said to be effective in about 80 per cent of the cases. The dust eliminates hazardous accumulations of the gas and is spread from a motor-driven blower.

Popular for Flavoring

Anise is grown chiefly for its aromatic seeds (fruits) which are used medicinally and also in baking and for flavoring confectionery. The oil distilled from the seeds is used medicinally in cordials and also for flavoring various beverages. Yields of anise seed are quite variable since the plant is very sensitive to unfavorable weather conditions. In a good season from 400 to 600 pounds per acre may be reasonably expected.

The questionnaires receiving statewide distribution propounded seven questions, relating to the hogs and sheep on farms, and the amount of wool shorn from the sheep and lambs of Illinois since January 1. Replies to these questions, to be compiled and published about the first of July, will form a valuable and interesting report of the sheep and swine production of the state.

The Union Free High School graduated a class of thirteen students of which six were girls and seven boys at the exercises in the gym Thursday night. The class included: Honor students—Bernice Harin, valdorian, Wylanta Haggerty, saultorian; Esther Kanis, Alice McDougall, Frances Reynolds, Ruth Stoen, Norton Hasset, Bernard Hockney, Leroy Madden, Glen Monner, George Richter, Chester Runyard and Emerson Schmalfeldt.

Two honors, one in scholarship and one in sportsmanship were awarded Emerson Schmalfeldt and John Member respectively. Two loving cups have been given the school and the names of these two boys will be engraved on the cups. Each year a new name will be added to the cups of the boy excelling that year either in sportsmanship or scholarship.

The program included, besides the addresses given by the honor students, special music by a group of class members and violin solos by Mr. Mulder. The addresses by Miss Harin and Miss Haggerty contained very good subject matter and their ease and perfection of delivery made a very good impression on the large audience. The commencement address was given by Rev. Perry of West Bend. He contrasted living conditions and ideals of twenty years ago with conditions now and pointed the way of opportunity that lies ahead for the young graduates.

J. E. Mulder, the retiring principal presented the diplomas and gave a short talk in farewell. C. J. Wetzel followed him on the stage and gave a brief talk in which he gave a glowing tribute to Mr. Mulder, as a teacher and a man and presented him in behalf of the class of 1928, the students, the faculty members and Ell Vincent a gift of a traveling bag. An expression of their appreciation to him of his work in the Wilmot school.

Indicate Oil Deposits

The geological survey says that an anticline is an upfold in rocks, and such a fold in deposits that are buried beneath thousands of more recent geologic strata were not subjected to the same cannot be detected at the surface. Such upfolds, called "anticlines," are regarded as favorable to the accumulation of oil and it is for this reason that oil prospectors endeavor to locate such structures.

Risks Life in Raging Sea to Save Shipmates

Norfolk, Va.—Sailing 600 feet through a raging surf, Tony Lafune reached the shore at Cape Henry recently and summoned assistance for Capt. William Rineberg and one other shipmate who were facing death on the stranded motor schooner Emily.

The Emily, owned by Captain Rineberg and others of Wildwood, N. J., and heading from New York, was caught in a strong northeast gale while attempting to enter the Virginia capes to escape the storm. The boat was lost.

The Emily struck the beach before daylight and was not seen by coast guardsmen who were patrolling the beach. The boat was fast breaking up under the three men aboard her when Lafune volunteered to attempt to swim ashore and summon the coast guardsmen. He leaped into the raging sea with life preservers strapped to his body and his shipmates did not expect he would reach shore. He was exhausted when he crawled out of the water but he managed to reach the coast guard station at Cape Henry. Then he fainted.

The guardsmen in their own motorboat took off Captain Rineberg and his companion. The Emily broke into pieces a few minutes later. She was 65 feet long and had been engaged in fishing along the coast for two years.

Pave Streets With Jewels

The idea of streets paved with jewels and precious stones may have its poetic appeal, but this practice has obvious disadvantages from the utilitarian viewpoint. It seems that a state trust operating a factory in Sverdlovsk (formerly Ekaterinburg) recently sold 100 tons of such precious stones as topaz, nephrite and malachite for a nominal price under the impression that the stones represented nothing but "old junk."

15 Dynamite Sticks Plaything of Boy, Six

Syracuse, N. Y.—Fifteen sticks of dynamite—almost enough to blow up an entire section of the city—were the playthings of a six-year-old boy. The playthings of William J. Cook, Jr., six years old and his companions for several days. They tossed the brightly-colored packages about. They threw them at each other. Then when their play ceased for one day, they carefully hid the attractive "toys" under the porch of the Cook home.

This was revealed when William J. Cook, Sr., father of the boy, discovered the packages and notified Capt. Jeffrey Malone. The boy picked up the dynamite in a field near his home. An investigation has been ordered.

HER HOME UNSAFE, WIFE GOES TO JAIL

Ready to Stay There if Protection Is Denied.

Hillside, Mich.—To protect herself from what she says is persecution designed to force her and her husband to leave Hillside county, Mrs. Mary Moross, wife of E. A. Moross, former Detroit and extensive property owner, is in the county jail here, where she says she will remain rather than put up $500 bond and return to her home in Mosherville.

Moross and his wife declare a series of incidents, culminating in a threat against his life, is the result of activities of a gang to whom he has given considerable publicity of late.

Mrs. Moross declares she will remain in jail until state or county authorities take steps to protect her home. She was arrested and placed in jail as the result of an attack on the Moross home when rocks were thrown through every window. Armed with a shotgun she ran out to investigate and followed fleeing forns down the road. The next day she was arrested on a charge of carrying deadly weapons on the highway and endangering lives of residents of Mosherville.

Meanwhile, Moross is attempting to identify persons who lugged an edgely on his property about a quarter of a mile from his house and threatened his life. The developments of the last few days are the culmination of a number of incidents perpetrated, Moross says, with the intention of forcing him to give up his property and leave the county.

About a year ago Moross was arrested on a charge of assault with intent to kill when he went with a shotgun to investigate a light back of his barn after receiving several anonymous threats that his mill would be burned. The case is still pending in the Hillsdale Circuit court.

Nab New York Mounted Cop as Burglar De Luxe

New York.—Many thousands dollars worth of the loot stolen from about forty homes in Staten Island during the last eighteen months was recovered recently at the home of Mounted Policeman Stephen Kelper, twenty nine years old, according to Deputy Police Inspector Ernest Van Wagner in charge of the Staten Island detectives. Kelper confessed committing the burglaries.

Kelper's home was lavishly furnished, the deputy inspector said, largely with merchandise taken from the summer homes of wealthy persons in the Cedar Grove section of Staten Island, and among the articles which Kelper admitted stealing, was a fur mace and complete heating outfit which had been installed in his own home.

All of the robberies, Deputy Inspector Van Wagner said, were committed in the New Drop precinct where Kelper was on duty as a mounted policeman, and had been the source of considerable worry to the commanding officer and detectives. Virtually all of them were committed on Kelper's post and he had reported many of them to his senior officers.

Mamma Bear Saves Cubs, but They're in Zoo Now

Lock Haven, Pa.—When fire broke out in the western woods of Clinton county, a mother bear saved two of her cubs by placing them under a rocky ledge out of the path of the fire but as she was carrying the third cub to a place of safety, the fire shifted and enveloped mother and cub. The cub was rescued by members of a section crew, but the mother bear had disappeared.

The three baby bears are being brought up by hand, on modified milk, at a game refuge. They weigh four pounds apiece.
